AUCTION CATALOG

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2026

Wishing St. Paul Catholic School continued success with your annual auction, where you strive to turn scholars into Saints.

–The Capital Campaign Leadership Committee

Dear Guests of St. Paul Catholic School,

Welcome, and thank you for joining us for the 31st Annual St. Paul Catholic School Auction, Saints in the City. We are delighted to gather with you this evening and grateful that you have chosen to be part of this special celebration of our school community.

Each year, the St. Paul family comes together to celebrate the blessings, friendships, and shared mission that unite us. Through your generosity, we are able to continue providing an exceptional Catholic education rooted in Christ and dedicated to nurturing our students spiritually, academically, socially, and physically.

In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus says, "Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you" (Mark 5:19). Those words beautifully reflect the spirit of tonight's event. We have been abundantly blessed by our students, families, parishioners, alumni, community partners, sponsors, and donors. This evening is an opportunity not only to celebrate those blessings, but also to invest in the future of St. Paul Catholic School and the lives of the children entrusted to our care.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our volunteers, sponsors, donors, and countless supporters whose dedication has made this evening possible. Your generosity strengthens our mission and helps ensure that St. Paul remains a place where faith is nurtured, excellence is pursued, and lifelong friendships are formed.

Tonight, we invite you to enjoy good company, celebrate our shared successes, and remember what makes St. Paul Catholic School so special: a community where strangers become friends, friends become family, and together we help our children grow into the saints God calls them to be.

Thank you for being part of our story and for helping shape the future of St. Paul Catholic School.

In Christ's Peace,

Pastor
Father David Brown

Principal

General Auction Rules

Bidder Identification
Each attendee has been assigned a bid card number to be used for all bidding. This bid number is your account number during the auction. Your account must be closed at the end of the event, which may be the following day if the silent auction is held virtually.

Liability
All sales are final. Reservations for trips and/or accommodations must be arranged with the donor unless otherwise specified. The St. Paul Catholic School Auction Committee has endeavored to describe items correctly, but all goods and services are sold "as is." St. Paul Catholic School and the St. Paul Auction Committee neither warrants nor represents, and shall not be responsible for the correctness of descriptions, genuineness, authorship, or condition of items offered. All items sold at the auction are to be undertaken at the sole risk of the purchaser. St. Paul Catholic School and the St. Paul Auction Committee are not liable or responsible in any way for the loss, injury, or damage to (or in respect to) any person or property. Auction items are non-transferable without consent from the donor.

Item values indicated are estimates only and are not warranted by St. Paul Catholic School or the St. Paul Auction Committee for tax or other purposes. Claims for defects or failure to deliver a benefit or item bid upon must be brought against the donor, not against St. Paul Catholic School or the St. Paul School Auction Committee.

Drawing
One lucky winner will be drawn just prior to the start of the live auction. For $100, someone will win their choice of a $4500 tuition voucher, or an item from our LIVE Auction Packages. Only 100 chances will be sold! Purchase as many chances as you like prior to the start of the live auction.

Silent Auction
The silent auction will be held online for the 2026-27 auction season. If you wish to bid on an item, you must register through the auction website and use the personalized registration link sent to you. You may bid on each item as often as you wish.The silent auction will close on Sunday, 10/18/26.

At the close of each silent auction section the person who placed the final bid within the time restriction, at the minimum raise, will be deemed the purchaser of the item.

Live Auction
Each person will be assigned a bid number at the registration table. The auctioneer will seek verbal bids on live auction items and will determine the winning bidder. The cashier will record the winning bidder's number and amount. (Your bid number serves as your account number.)

Certificates for goods and services, as well as the actual items, can be picked up at the St. Paul gym beginning October 22, 2026.

 Unless otherwise specified, ALL AUCTION PACKAGES, Silent and Live, expire October 16, 2027.**

Payment
St. Paul Catholic School utilizes Greater Giving to process credit card orders. This serves to accelerate the checkout process at the end of the evening. During registration, you have the option of running your credit or debit card through the Greater Giving terminals. When you are ready to leave, proceed to express checkout and review your charges. If you have purchased any auction items, you then take your receipt to that distribution area. Greater Giving accepts Mastercard, Visa, Discover, and American Express.

St. Paul Catholic School is a non-profit 501(c) (3). Tax ID#: 93-1125574.
